Agenda and associated minutes

1. Introduction of Guests - Sally Gonzalez, District Social Worker for FUESD.
 - a. A team of 7 individuals work over 9 schools, plus district (includes Potter Jr. High)
 - b. Food insecurity is one of the needs in town, especially with the current political climate and SNAP benefits withholding.
 - i. Collaboration with Feeding San Diego (separate from San Diego Food Bank)
 1. Feeding San Diego started school pantries at 2 of the schools

2. Feeding San Diego gives palettes of produce and dry goods, then volunteers and staff package them and distribute the food once a month.
 3. Fallbrook STEM - having a ribbon cutting with the donors Monday, Dec. 8
 4. Mary Fay Pendleton - starting in Dec. Distribution 2x a month.
 5. Rest of the schools are on a wait list
 6. Volunteers are always needed; Distributions are also at the library and Bonsall Riverview Church.
 7. San Diego Food Bank - Backpack Program
 - a. Provides shelf stable food
 - ii. Bonsall School District has a community liaison, not a social worker. Would be a good person to connect with to maybe start our own distribution location via Feeding San Diego (They provide the food, we distribute them.)
 1. Vivian Banks Charter School in Bonsall School District probably has a high need.
